From February through July, the Alaska Center for Resource Families is offering a teleconference series entitled Positive Parenting Strategies - Meet Them Where They're At. This series will address typical challenging behaviors among children in out-of-home placement. Each topic is presented in 2 parts to discuss how to handle the behavior depending on the child's needs and how that would look for children with and without diagnosed neurodevelopmental disorders.

Feb 12 – Food Hoarding – Part 1

Mar 12 – Food Hoarding – Part 2

Apr 9 – Bedwetting – Part 1

May 14 – Bedwetting – Part 2

Jun 11 – Lying & Stealing – Part 1

July 9 – Lying & Stealing – Part 2

From August through December, we are offering a series entitled Navigating the Paths to Permanency – Strength and Support Among the System and will offer information and highlight supports in place for those going through the process of adoption or guardianship.
